

PLM 2003 PROGRAMME
THURSDAY, 1 MAY

8:30-9:00	Opening of the Conference
	FOCUS ON ACCENTS PANEL/WORKSHOP PLENARY SESSION organised by K. Dziubalska-Kořaczyk and J. Przedlacka
	CHAIR: Henry Widdowson (Vienna)
9:00-9:45	J.C. Wells (London): Goals in teaching English pronunciation
9:45-10:30	P. Trudgill (Fribourg)
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
	FOCUS ON ACCENTS PANEL/WORKSHOP PLENARY SESSION
11:00-11:30	S. Ash (Philadelphia): Choosing a dialect of American English
11:30-12:00	B. Seidlhofer (Vienna)
12:00-12:30	J. Szpyra-Kořłowska (Lublin): The Lingua Franca Core and the Polish learner
12:30-13:00	Discussion
13:00-14:30	Lunch
	FOCUS ON ACCENTS PANEL/WORKSHOP continued	ISSUES IN SOCIO-PRAGMATICS AND DISCOURSE ANALYSIS
14:30-14:55	B. Jenner: A real common core	convenor: B. Kryk-Kastovsky
14:55-15:20	E. Waniek-Klimczak: EFL speech: specifying the target	14:30-15:00 M. Krzyřanowski: National Identities and European Institutions
15:20-15:45	ř. řimáčková: Role of duration and quality in nonnative perception of English front vowels	15:00-15:30 P. Edwards Rokowski: Forms of Address in the Discourse of Tourist Promotion
15:45-16:10	L. Komar: To teach the phonology of international English or not to teach	15:30-16:00 R. Marcinkevicienė: The strategy of presenting criticisms in book reviews
16:10-16:30	Discussion	16:00-16:30 J. Pawelczyk: Conversation or interrogation? The case of interactional (a)symmetry in the institutional context of the Polish call centers
16:30-17:00	Coffee break
	FOCUS ON ACCENTS PANEL/WORKSHOP continued	ISSUES IN SOCIO-PRAGMATICS AND DISCOURSE ANALYSIS continued
17:00-17:15	W. Sobkowiak: Why not LFC?	17:00-17:30 S. Biscetti: The pragmatics of "bloody": an historical account
17:15-17:30	M. Remiszewski: Psychological reality of teaching Lingua Franca Core	17:30-18:00 U. Okulska: Textual strategies in diachronic epistolary prose
17:30-17:45	I. łęska-Drajerczak et al.: Teaching English phonetics from IFA teachers' perspective	18:00-18:30 W. Kwarciński: What is legal discourse: A pragmatic account
17:45-18:00	M. Wrembel: An overview of pronunciation teaching materials	18:30-19:00 M. Boniřniak: On the relationship between linguistic pragmatics and axiology
18:00-18:15	J. Weckwerth: How Polish students rate native English	19:00-19:30 E. Wąsik: Linguistic Pragmatics from a "Hard-Science" Perspective
18:15-18:30	M. Kul
18:30-18:45	K. Janicka: On General American: learners' views
18:45-19:00	S. Scheuer: On LFC acceptability and the future of the English language
19:00-19:30	Final Discussion

The Meeting is organised by the School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, in association with the Poznań College of Modern Languages.
Patronage: Mayor of the City of Poznań and Rector of Adam Mickiewicz University.

PLM 2003 PROGRAMME
FRIDAY 2 MAY

9:00-10:00	PLENARY R. Cole (Boulder): Perceptive Animated Interfaces: The Next Generation of Interactive Learning Tools CHAIR: W. Sobkowiak (Poznań)
	INTERACTIVE LEARNING TOOLS: DISCUSSION SESSION CHAIR: D. Gibbon (Bielefeld)	SYNTAX convenor: J. Witkoś	ISSUES IN PHONOLOGY AND MORPHOLOGY CHAIR: D. Kastovsky (Vienna)
10:00-10:30		10:00-11:00 G. Fanselow: Multiple spell-out: evidence from German	T. Ciszewski: Morphophonological "controversy": on "visibility" of morphological information in English word stress
10:30-11:00			C. Hamans: The morphology of oddities
11:00-11:30		B. Rozwadowska & E. Willim: The function of Polish partitive genitive in aspectual composition	D. Le Gac: French Tone Rules and Structures
11:30-12:00	Coffee break
	Interactive Learning Tools: Discussion Session	SYNTAX continued	SLA convenor: S. Scheuer
12:00-12:30		B. Cetnarowska: Weak and unstressed pronouns in Polish	M. Westergaard: Input cues and L2 acquisition
12:30-13:00		P. Tajsner: Optimal design, imperfections and dislocation	W. Marton: A maximum-efficiency model for the teaching of L2 grammar in a foreign-language, non-intensive context
13:00-14:30	Lunch
	RHYTHM AS STRUCTURE AND PROCESS organised by D. Gibbon F. Cummins, M. Flores, U. Gut, M. Horne P. Wagner	SYNTAX continued	SLA continued
14:30-15:00		E. Bułat: Reflexive verbs as null object licensors in Polish. Similarities between the reflexive się and small pro	A. Błaszczuk-Szabat: The relationship between inherent aspect and past tense in the acquisition of Polish learned as L2
15:00-15:30		A. Przepiórkowski: On case transmission in control and raising constructions	N. Novaković: The acquisition of clitics by English and French adult learners of Serbo-Croatian
15:30-16:00		J. Błaszczak: Polish being "ergative"? The riddle of the "X not be at Y" construction	I. Koutny & M. David: Pragmatic aspects of the acquisition of Hungarian
16:00-16:30	Coffee break
	RHYTHM AS STRUCTURE AND PROCESS continued	SYNTAX continued	SLA continued
16:30-17:00		M. Lubańska: Partial wh-movement in Polish	C. Alexander: The student - an invaluable source of information in the writing process
17:00-17:30		J. Witkoś: Expletive raising
19:00	Conference banquet

The Meeting is organised by the School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, in association with the Poznań College of Modern Languages.
Patronage: Mayor of the City of Poznań and Rector of Adam Mickiewicz University.

PLM 2003 PROGRAMME
SATURDAY 3 MAY

9:00-10:00	PLENARY E.F.K. Koerner (Cologne): Myths, ideologies, and revolutions in linguistics CHAIR: E. H. Jahr (Kristiansand)
	RHYTHM AS STRUCTURE AND PROCESS continued	SYNTAX continued	GOVERNMENT PHONOLOGY VS. NATURAL PHONOLOGY organised by E. Cyran and K. Dziubalska-Kořaczyk
10:00-10:30		D. Klimek & B. Rozwadowska: From psych adjectives to psych verbs	10:00-10:20 E. Gussmann: Tba
10:30-11:00		M. Tryzna: Resultative phrases as markers of aspect in English and Polish	10:20-10:40 K. Dziubalska-Kořaczyk & W. Dressler: Principles of Natural Phonology: An introduction
11:00-11:30			10:40-11:00 E. Cyran: Introduction to Government Phonology 11:00-11:30 Discussion
11:30-12:00	Coffee break
	RHYTHM AS STRUCTURE AND PROCESS Continued	SYNTAX continued	GOVERNMENT PHONOLOGY VS. NATURAL PHONOLOGY continued
12:00-12:30		E. Rudnicka-Mosiądz: The role of perfective aspect in the interpretation of NPs	12:00-12:20 E. Ronneberger-Sibold: Striving for the optimal compromise: evolution of morphological and phonological patterns in German brand names
12:30-13:00		M. Moss: On the role of C-command in grammar	12:20-12:40 P. Ségéral & T. Scheer: Good, evil, their balance and what they tell us about language 12:40-13:00 Discussion

The Meeting is organised by the School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, in association with the Poznań College of Modern Languages.
 Patronage: Mayor of the City of Poznań and Rector of Adam Mickiewicz University.

PLM 2003 PROGRAMME

SATURDAY, 3 MAY continued

13:00-14:30 Lunch
	HISTORICAL LINGUISTICS: EMERGING STANDARDS convenor: M. Krygier	ISSUES IN LEXICON, CONTRASTIVE ANALYSIS AND COGNITIVE GRAMMAR CHAIR: W. Marton (Poznań)	GOVERNMENT PHONOLOGY VS. NATURAL PHONOLOGY continued
14:30-15:00	J. Bugaj, R. Dylewski, M. Krygier	M. Derwojedowa & M. Rudolf: His Majesty, Her Majesty, and Burkina Faso: Strange multi-word lexical units from computational perspective	14:30-14:50 M. Oñederra: Non-monolithic explanatory principles in phonology
15:00-15:30		A. Dorodnych: Language situation in Ukraine	14:50-15:10 P. Szigetvári: The null hypotheses of "syllable structure"
15:30-16:00		L. Kardaleska: Contrastive analysis and error analysis in combination with analysis of the semantic level	15:10-15:30 N. Ritt: How, when and where suprasegmental structure gets assigned, and to what
			15:30-16:00 Discussion
16:00-16:30 Coffee break
		ISSUES IN LEXICON, CONTRASTIVE ANALYSIS AND COGNITIVE GRAMMAR continued	GOVERNMENT PHONOLOGY VS. NATURAL PHONOLOGY continued
16:30-17:00		A. Słoń: The -NE/-TE Construction in Polish - on the Way to Impersonality. A Cognitive Grammar Analysis	16:30-16:50 S. Blaho: H instead of L in Hungarian
17:00-17:30		M. Fabiszak: War as source and target: a comprehensive approach to war metaphors	16:50-17:10 A. Bloch-Rozmej: Element interactions in intra- and interonset relations
			17:10-17:30 A. Buczek-Zawiła: The untamed Welsh plurality
			17:30-17:50 G. Schwartz: Temporal phenomena in Natural Phonology
			17:50-18:10 Ł. Mokrzycki: A 'natural' reconsideration of the Old English vowel system

RESERVE:

K. Jaskuła: Morphophonological lenition in Old Irish

A. Kijak: Polish trapped sonorants and strict CV

The Meeting is organised by the School of English, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, in association with the Poznań College of Modern Languages.

Patronage: Mayor of the City of Poznań and Rector of Adam Mickiewicz University.