

Independent, dependent and interdependent variables in language decay and language death.

Wolfgang U. Dressler (Austrian Academy of Sciences, AE) wolfgang.dressler@univie.ac.at

This paper will try to assess the relative importance and types of dependence and interdependence of salient political, economic, social, psychological and linguistic variables of language decay and language death. Data discussed will come mainly from European languages.