

ICT in EFL credit test, MA2, 13/06/2014.

Circle the best answer

1. A visualizer is:

- (a) a contemporary episcopo,
- (b) a reflective wall screen,
- (c) a projector (beamer),
- (d) a smartphone screen,
- (e) Google Glass eye-piece.

2. This Spectrum screenshot comes from the program called:

- (a) John and Mary,
- (b) Phonetic Reader,
- (c) Money Borrower,
- (d) Shuffler,
- (e) Space Invaders.

3. Corpus-derived data show that ... is the most common prepositional collocation with 'moment' in English:

- (a) at the moment,
- (b) for a moment,
- (c) at this moment,
- (d) in a moment,
- (e) for the moment.

4. Animated speaking agents of Baldi type offer:

- (a) Artificial Intelligence,
- (b) Automatic Speech Recognition,
- (c) perfect lip-synching,
- (d) X-ray-type functionalities,
- (e) detailed articulatory advice.

5. Internet is to web as:

- (a) browser is to search engine,
- (b) Facebook is to Google,
- (c) hardware is to software,
- (d) emailing is to Instant Messaging,
- (e) web1 is to web2.

6. Blogging and podcasting are rare in FLT because they:

- (a) are passive technologies,
- (b) require considerable technical skills,
- (c) require top-level hardware and connectivity,
- (d) require effort and consistency,
- (e) are unknown in schools.

7. According to Turkle 2010, "sociable technology will always disappoint because it promises what it cannot deliver"; namely it cannot deliver:

- (a) Artificial Intelligence,
- (b) ASR and TTS,
- (c) reliably walking robots,
- (d) responsiveness,
- (e) friendship.

Best answers: 1a, 2d, 3a, 4d, 5c, 6d, 7e.