

CALL placement/orientation test
© Włodzimierz Sobkowiak
ver. 6, 8th Sep 2014

	Proposition
1.	Smartphones can handle Augmented Reality.	Y
2.	It is possible to search the web for pictures similar to the given one.	Y
3.	Oculus Rift is another name for Google Glass.	N
4.	Tablet is an alternative name for a laptop.	N
5.	In internet text-chat we can conceal our true identity.	Y
6.	It is possible to blog on Facebook.	Y
7.	Headers are lines of text printed across the top of each page of a document.	Y
8.	A spreadsheet is mostly used to protect computers from dust.	N
9.	Materials on the internet can be freely copied because they are not copyrighted.	N
10.	Firewalls are used to guard computers against harmful software.	Y
11.	User-friendliness depends on the ease, intuitiveness and feedback a given system provides.	Y
12.	HTML is one of many multimedia formats (like mp3 or wma).	N
13.	In m-learning , the m comes from mobile .	Y
14.	ASCII is one of the better known programming languages.	N
15.	Speech-to-speech machine translation is possible on most smartphones.	Y
16.	Android is the newest model of an animated robot.	N